This is one time big money failed to elect a President.

Gov. Hiram Johnson, of California, was the Hallow'een pumpkin lantern of the Moosers.

Township collectors shouldered their tax books this week and will soon be on your trail.

Now, if Pres. Taft will sick Teddy on the Mexicans and kinder clean up the rubbish before March 4.

Roosevelt has been shown that he is not more popular than Grant. But will he see it?

The hole that was shot thru Roosevelt's best speech at Chicago, didn't let any Taft light thru.

We are in receipt of a complimentary season ticket to the Chicago Stock Show which will open Nov. 30 and continue to Dec. 7. This is a great event for stockman whether breeders, shippers, feeders or farmers where all of them can learn something of advantage to their business.

The largest amount spent by any candidate for Congress this year was $4865 invested by Harvey Helm in the 8th Kentucky and the least amount reported to the clerk of the house two cents, squandered by D. L. Thomas, socialist, in the 22d Illinois district. He just had to write one letter.

Entertained Omega Club

About forty members of the Omega Club were guests of Miss Lois Hancock at her home Saturday afternoon. The social affair was given over to a general good time, Rook being played and a substantial lunch served. The luncheon consisted of chicken patties, pickles, ham and pimento sandwiches, grape ice, beaten biscuit and mints.

Got His Ducks

John Bayne Cocke and another man, whom, according to Cocke's story did not cut much figure anyhow in the final results, went hunting, Thursday. They brought home five big, fat speckled mallards and two squirrels. Cocke says of course, that he killed the larger portion of the game.

H. H. Miller of Rothville was a guest in the county capital Wednesday.

Judge Rucker Talks on Question of Post-Office Appointments.

Tuesday a Courier reporter interviewed Congressman Rucker on the subject of post-office appointments upon the incoming administration. In the course of the conversation he said:

"In order to avoid the friction which sometimes results from heated contests I thought, and have announced, that I would determine to whom I would give my indorsement immediately after the election, being sure of Democratic victory. Acting on this conclusion I have given my indorsement for one office—the post-office at Salisbury. At the time I did so I was under the impression, without having investigated the matter, that the commission of the present incumbent would expire within one year. I subsequently learned I was in error in this regard."

"Upon more deliberate reflection I realize that many changes are liable to occur, and do occur, in the space of one year or two years. However, I now think it unwise to take up for consideration any application for post office appointment where the present post-master's commission has more than a year to run. No good could possibly result from an indorsement for a position which is to be held so long the applicant indorsed could enter upon the duties of the office."

"As soon as I get the information I will publish the dates of expiration of commissions for the benefit of all concerned."

Attended Missionary Session

A half dozen ladies of this city members of the Baptist church went to Salisbury Thursday to attend the meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Association, a Baptist Missionary organization. The session is held every six months territory included in the association's jurisdiction being Randolph and Chariton counties. Moberly, Huntsville, Clifton, Keytesville and Brunswick turned out good delegations. Those who went from here to attend were Mesdames A. C. Seiser, Sam White, Charles Chapman, Wess Agee, Hoeker and Misses Anderson and Bayne.

My Piano Contest

As advertised, the contest for the Upton Grand Piano was closed Wednesday at six o'clock. Miss Katherine Stamper proved to be the lucky contestant. The contest was conducted in strict accordance with the rules laid down at the beginning, and no partiality or favoritism was shown. I want to express my deep appreciation of the efforts of the various contestants and their friends for the interest taken in the contest and for the increase of patronage at my store. I especially want to express my appreciation of the fairness manifested by every contestant towards the others. To those who were disappointed in this contest, I will suggest that I may have a more alluring proposition to offer them in the near future.

Again thanking all of my many customers and respectfully soliciting your continued patronage,

I am, yours truly,

H. M. Sigloch
